

HOWARD LITTLE PLACED ON TRIAL

Alleged to Be Guilty of Sextuple Murder
and Arson.

JURY SELECTED IN HALF AN HOUR

Exceedingly Strong Circumstantial Case Is Considered to Have Been Built Up by the State—Ample Guard Surrounds Jail to Protect Prisoner.

RUNDY, VA., November 25.—The trial of Howard Little, who is accused of the killing of Mrs.
Bettie Little, his son, George Meadows, his wife and three children, and of having set the house in which they lived on fire after he had completed the alleged sextuple murder, was begun here to-day and, judging from the large attendance in the courtroom, the case is one of very great interest to the people of this section.

Court convened at 8:30 o'clock this morning, with Judge Burns presiding, and within thirty minutes the jury had been chosen from a list of 100 names.
The jury is composed of the following men, all of whom are well known in Buchanan county: Alexander Mercer, A. B. Arms, Davis Steele, B. C.
Chambers, J. W. Nichols, William Ratcliffe, W. F. Elliott, Arch. Ratcliffe, C.
V. Vandyke, James McLaughlin, C. C.
Anderson, and H. W. H. Perkins.

State Prisoner Is Case.
As soon as the jury was empaneled the State commenced to present its evidence, and when night had arrived, and the case adjourned for the day, it had built up an exceedingly strong case against the man accused of the sextuple murder and arson.

The strongest witness against the accused man was Mary Lee, who swore on the stand that the lantern which little brought with him after spending the night of the murder, after he had come from the one which was used in the Justis home, and which was made from a felt hat. The counsel for the defense, however, as charged by the admission of this testimony, but after the arguments of both sides were heard the judge decided to admit it.
This evidence showed beyond a doubt that Little had visited the Meadows home the night of the murder, as it is known that the lantern was in the house before the murder was committed.

Other witnesses also swore that the lantern was the property of the late George Meadows, and the State made a very strong case by securing the admission of this evidence.

Mary Stacy, the woman with whom Little was to have left the town of Hurley for a Western trip, admitted on the stand that Little told her that he had money in the bank at Bluefield, W. Va., and that as soon as he could get it out he intended taking her away from this section. She said that Little told her that it would take him at least thirty days to get the money, as it was in the savings department. She said that they expected to get away on September 15, but admitted that Little told her that it might be later on in the month.

Evidence was admitted showing that George Meadows and Bettie Justis had $1,000 in the house at the time of the murder, but none of the money has been found. Several times the attorneys for both sides got into warm wrangles about the admission of certain evidence, but while the judge ruled first one way and then the other in his gruff manner, he gave entire satisfaction to both sides and the people.

The State claimed to-night that half of its evidence has been submitted, and that it expected to finish its case some time to-morrow.

Special Guard at the Jail.
The courtroom was crowded all day, and a special guard has been thrown around the jail to-night so as to prevent any possible trouble. While in the courtroom Little was only slightly guarded. There were a number of county officers at all times within reach. Little stood the ordeal well, and it is rumored that he will ask his wife to go on the witness stand. This is what the State wants, as the money about such a thing, it is possible, an officer went to Wyoming county, W.
Va., after her yesterday, and she will appear in the courtroom to-morrow morning.

It is believed that if he is disposed to testify, he will be brought down from the jail, and it is believed that he would have been lynched. Since that time, however, Judge Burns, who is a member of the bar, has been disposed to let the case go on.

Open Threats Made.
Open threats of lynching had been made against Little, and at one time a posse started to Lohon to make him from the jail, and if he had been taken by the posse it is certain that he would have been lynched. Since that time, however, Judge Burns, who
posed to let the case go on.

LORD BALFOUR'S WARNING

He Tells Peers Their Victory Will Be of Only Temporary Nature.

LONDON, November 25.—"If you win a victory, it will be only a temporary one. If you lose, you will be the losers of the House of Lords, which I believe every one of you honor, and desire to serve as heartily as I do myself."

In this homely, candid fashion, Lord Balfour, of Burleigh, told the members of the House of Lords this evening his opinion of the course they are pursuing with regard to the budget.
He has none of the graces of oratory which Lord Rosebery possesses, but his plain, downright manner is not without effect, and his speech was the real event of the evening in the upper chamber. It probably will have even greater influence than that of Lord Rosebery, because Rosebery's longer hold is a confirmed one.

The Bishop of Hereford, who intervened later in the debate, said that while he respected the Archbishop of Canterbury's desire that the bishops abstain from voting on the measure, he claimed the right to the exercise of independent judgment. If the bishops had any function to perform, it was to speak for the multitudinous poor, said the Bishop, and he suggested that the budget, which was a social welfare budget, based on sound finance.

Many others of the peers spoke, but all of them along ordinary party lines.
A great pro-budget demonstration took place to-night in Parliament Square and that locality. Six thousand persons gathered for the demonstration, and sang political songs and cheered for David Lloyd-George. Chancellor of the Exchequer. The number of the number of 1,500 were employed in keeping order, but finally the crowd became unmanageable, and the police slight scuffles, and several arrests were made. The demonstration is likely to be repeated on a larger scale Monday and Tuesday.

LETTERS BREATHE LOVE

Epistles of Defendant to Daughter Introduced in Trial.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., November 25.—
The jury which is trying W. V. Ellis, of Pine Bluff, for the murder of Nathaniel Parker, has heard the letters written by Ellis throughout to-day, the court refusing to adjourn for Thanksgiving, and listened to letters written by Ellis to his daughter, and to Mary Frances Willis, the innocent cause of the tragedy, which occurred in a courtroom here last night. At times genuine pathos, and at times introduction in part to show the strong feeling of the defendant for his wife, father's light to regain possession of the child led to the tragedy.

The letters were the feature of today's developments in the trial, aside from two witnesses whose testimony from important links in the chain of evidence, the defense trying to establish that Ellis was insane when he shot down the Indiana man. These witnesses, Dr. W. S. Stewart, of Pine Bluff, and Dr. C. W. Johnson, of Pe-say, clerk at the Merchants Hotel, where Ellis stopped on the day of the tragedy, both testified to the mental condition of the accused man shortly before the tragedy.

Chancellor John M. Elliott, of Pine Bluff, was introduced as a witness made by Ellis for advice on a letter received from his daughter, who was temporarily excused by Ellis's appearance and condition, when an objection from the State stopped him, and the court ruled on the disputed points.

DR. BURROUGHS OBJECTS

Declares Ministers Not Competent to Preach to the People.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., November 25.— Declaring that ministers and preachers of the gospel are incompetent to discuss the problems of the day, and to be employed in the warfare against tuberculosis, and further intimating that the clergy is too much inclined to give ground to the enemy, Dr. C.
Burroughs, of this city, president of the State Tuberculosis Association, tonight, repudiated a movement by the North Carolina Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, which called on the ministers of the State to preach education to the people, and which called on the State to employ in the fight against tuberculosis.

Only yesterday Governor Kitchen sent out to the press of the State an open letter, requesting that the movement for "Sanitary Sunday" be given all possible prominence. Dr. Burroughs, as president of the State Tuberculosis Association, and as assistant secretary
